Learning Through Drama contains drama strategies and lesson plans for use with primary school children both within subject areas and as extended learning opportunities in whole class drama sessions. This practical handbook explores how to use the greatest resource that teachers have available to them – children’s imagination. Play is a natural part of children’s lives before they start school, helping them to make sense of their place in the world. Such creativity can be harnessed through drama to enable active and interactive learning experiences throughout the primary years and across the cu Primary School Programme refers to the learning offered from Grade One through to Grade Five. Students typically become seven years old during the academic year they join Grade One and eleven years old during their last year in Primary School. The Primary School provides a nurturing and challenging environment that is student centric with regards to contexts and academic learning. In Primary, we believe that students learn more from how they are taught than from what they are taught. In primary, experiential learning occupies at least two hours each day. Practical subject areas are offered weekly: Green Projects, Physical Education, Drama, Art and Music. Green Studies lessons are combined with Entrepreneurial learning in “Green Projects” time.
