An Introduction to Islam. ISLAM IS A WORLD RELIGION followed by around one-fifth of the world's population. At one stage it was the dominant religion everywhere between what is now Western China in the "Far East", and Spain/Morocco in the West. Although Islam is most often portrayed as a Middle Eastern "specifically Arab" religion, the countries with the largest numbers of Muslims are, respectively, Indonesia, Pakistan and India.¹ The two main rites of Islam are Sunni (about 85%) and the Shi'a (about 10-15%), the latter being most closely associated with Iran.² This article will give an overview of Imamain Al-Hassanain(p) Institute of Islamic Thought and Shiism Heritage - An Introduction to Islam.
