Literary and personal papers, 1935-2001, of Lady Dorothy Dunnett (1923-2001), novelist and portrait painter. These papers include research notes, typescripts and proofs of her novels, correspondence, and papers concerning her involvement in various cultural and business organizations.

Lady Dunnett (née Halliday) was born in Dunfermline and educated at James Gilliespie's School in Edinburgh. After school she embarked on a career as a civil servant, working for the Scottish Office in Edinburgh and for the Board of Trade in Glasgow. She married Alasdair M. Dunnett in 1956.

While working as a portrait painter and writer, she served on the boards of a number of organizations: the Scottish National War Memorial (1962-1996), Scottish Television plc (1979-1992), the National Library of Scotland (1986-2001), and the Edinburgh International Book Festival (1990-1995). She was awarded the OBE in 1992.

This archive includes papers relating to the following published works:

- Games of Kings (1961)
- Queens' Play (1964)

A note on the arrangement of the Dorothy Dunnett archive.

1. The first 'half' of the papers is arranged in the following series:

1 – 19. Early Writing.
20 – 99. Francis Crawford of Lymond Series.
100 – 178. King Hereafter.
179 – 383. Niccolò Series.
384 – 465. Dolly Bird or Johnston Johnston Mysteries.
466 – 499. Dorothy Dunnett Companion (Elspeth Morrison).
500 – 520. Annotated copies of books.

- 2.

521 – 1062. Notebooks, research, photographs, typescripts, reviews, press cuttings, correspondence and miscellaneous papers.

This second 'half' of the archive is listed in the interim order in which it was placed by the collection's first cataloguer. The collection would certainly have benefitted from further sorting and ordering, but time has not permitted this level of work. It is therefore recommended that researchers interrogate this list electronically rather than relying on the arrangement of the archive to yield up all files relating to a particular work or subject.
