This God is God outside of Christ, who is free from the grace of the Word; this is the hidden One who works through the Law. The God not preached is the creator-destroyer God, who works mysteriously in the laws of the universe as we encounter it. Preaching the hiddenness of God reveals the full humanity of the preacher. The well-known situation of the pastor includes those times when words do not come, when Scripture seems mute, and when bumps in our personal and professional lives prevent us from fully living into the audacity and authority that is required of congregational leaders. The hiddenness of God in revelation is a theology that believes in the effectiveness of God's Word, even if our human words do not always appear to be very effective. Start by marking "Christ And The Hiddenness Of God" as Want to Read: Want to Read savingâ€¦; Want to Read. In the case of God the Written at the end of the 1960s, this book introduces a whole series of themes. problems and perplexities which have come to obsess Don Cupitt permanently. However at that stage he was still ready to align himself with that mainstream of theological writing which almost identifies orthodox faith with the quest for objectivity, whereas now he is not. In the case of God the considerations that were leading him to question received assumptions had to do with the problem of analogy and the dynamics of the spiritual life. In the case of Christ they had to do with the resurrec

Brian E. Daley - 2009 - In L. G. Patterson, Andrew Brian McGowan, Brian Daley & Timothy J. Gaden (eds.), God in Early Christian Thought: Essays in Memory of Lloyd G. Patterson. Brill. Analytics. If God be our God at all, we must live; for "He is not the God of the dead, but of the living" (Matthew 22:32). It is also "hid with Christ." Our Lord's ascent to His glory in heaven is at once the pledge and the means of this our spiritual communion with God. It is "with Him" that we can "in heart and mind ascend;" it is "with Him" that we can "continually dwell." (2) But this is not all. Christ lives in the believer by his Spirit, and the believer lives to him in all he does. At the second coming of Christ, there will be a general assembling of all the redeemed; and those whose life is now hid with Christ, shall then appear with him in his glory. Do we look for such happiness, and should we not set our affections upon that world, and live above this? Colossians 3:3 Commentaries. Return policy. Product Highlights.
