Discovering the Kingdom of God

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

For most of my pilgrimage, I gave little consideration to the Biblical references, especially in the New Testament, on the Kingdom of God. I thought that when I read about the “Kingdom of Heaven” or the “Kingdom” or the “Kingdom of God,” the meaning was one and the same. That is to say, I simply concluded that all the references had to do either with eternal life for the believer in Jesus, or His second coming in respect to pre or post millennialism. I dare say my thinking was not that far removed from the great majority of Bible readers and students.

In very recent years, I began to ask of myself and others, what was it that Jesus our Lord truly wanted His followers to understand about His call to them? Upon closer inquiry, I started to notice that He spoke more in the four Gospels about the Kingdom of God than any other subject. I was amazed.

His first sermon was on the Kingdom of Heaven being at hand (Matthew 4:17). He prayed to His Father that His Kingdom might come on earth as it is in Heaven (Matthew 6:9-10), and Jesus followed a few verses later by admonishing His people to seek God’s Kingdom and His righteousness more than anything else in life (Matthew 6:32-33).

Over and over I read statements about the Kingdom of God. There are more than 90 references in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, and of that number, about 80% have to do with living as the disciples of Jesus on this earth! In other words, if our lives get right with the Lord now, Heaven for the believer will take care of itself. Our task is to live and serve for Jesus everyday while on this earth. That is clearly His call to us.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

What a difference it makes to possess a Kingdom perspective for life. God’s Kingdom is greater than any kingdom mankind could ever devise. His work is our work. His plan from Calvary’s Cross to save lost humanity is now our plan. If we love Jesus, it becomes automatic that we are citizens of His Kingdom and obedient to His will.

It is so encouraging to realize that believers all over much of the world are preaching and teaching and writing about the Kingdom of God on earth. It is a movement of God. It has to be. He must be declaring from the Heavens, finally they are getting it! A focus on God’s Kingdom through His Son is the answer to the ills and wickedness that plague us all.

A most insightful writer in these modern times about the Biblical emphasis on the Kingdom of God is Selwyn Hughes of Waverly, England, founder of Crusade for World Revival. In his recent book, Treasure for the Heart, he observes that "any pattern of praying that does not make the Kingdom a priority is not Christian praying" (p. 154). He goes on to write, "One of the sad things about church history is that the church has never really been gripped by the vision of the Kingdom of God. There are notable exceptions, of course, but by and large the church has missed its way in this matter. One theologian points out that when the church drew up its creeds – the Apostle's, the Athanasian, the Nicene – it mentioned the Kingdom only once in all three of them, and then marginally. The church will never move into the dimension God has planned for it until it puts the Kingdom where Jesus put it in the Lord's Prayer – in a place of primary consideration and primary allegiance" (p. 154). In addition, Hughes states that no wonder the church has stumbled from problem to problem when its priorities are not on the Kingdom of God as prioritized by God Himself (p. 155).

Also, Dr. Ken Hemphill has written in his inspiring book, The Prayer of Jesus, that While God’s kingdom is a coming event, it is also a present reality.

So when we pray, “Your kingdom come,” we are at one moment recognizing the fact that God’s ultimate rule is simply a matter of time, and we are also committing ourselves to participate in seeing it unfold before our eyes. And that is what’s really exciting!
Discovering the Kingdom of God

This aspect of the Lord’s Prayer continues to amaze me, not only because I missed the point for so long, but also because I now realize that it places me right on the cutting edge of kingdom living all day, every day.

Again, just as the line between prayer and life begins to vanish through the “praying without ceasing” mentality of the Lord’s Prayer, this kingdom focus dissolves the hard line between sacred and secular. If you take a good look at Jesus’ life, you see that all of it was sacred. Every event and occurrence in His life, no matter how ordinary or offhand, had a kingdom priority to it.

His disciples didn’t always understand this. They would shoo the children away to keep Him on schedule, and hustle the crowds along so they could get some rest. But Jesus saw everything through the lens of the Father’s kingdom. Even with this sense of divine urgency, He never appeared rattled, stressed out, or in a hurry. He simply watched to see where the kingdom was working, and He moved toward it with eyes and arms wide open. And so can we. (pp. 53-54)

Added to the increasing stream of written materials on the Kingdom of God is American missionary Bill Barker’s new book, Discovering the Kingdom of God: 31 Daily Devotions on the Kingdom of God. He has poured himself into a renewed, careful search of the scriptures, and the results of his studies are so insightful and inspiring. I am certain every one who reads the devotionals will be theologically enlightened and spiritually strengthened.

B. Carlisle Driggers,
Retired State Executive Director, South Carolina Baptist Convention (1992-2007)
January 27, 2007
The Bible instructs Christians to encourage one another. These devotional thoughts on the kingdom of God would never have been put on paper without the encouragement and support of my wife, Arlene, Debbie McDowell with the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and Teresa Parrett with the Kentucky Baptist Convention. They not only provided me with the encouragement to write out my thoughts as I studied the kingdom of God; but they also edited the material.

I am also deeply indebted to Dr. B. Carlisle Driggers, Executive Director of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. Without his passion for the kingdom of God and his personal encouragement as I wrestled through the biblical concepts of God’s kingdom, I would never have continued this journey of discovery. A journey from which there is no return. Jesus said, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God" (Luke 9:62). Instead He told us to “seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness” (Matthew 6:33). Consequently my prayer is, “May Your kingdom come, may Your will be done here on earth, just as it is in heaven.”
In May 2001, I became the Director of Appalachian Regional Ministry, a partnership ministry of ten Southern Baptist state conventions within the Appalachian region, the North American Mission Board and the Woman’s Missionary Union. In the course of visiting with each state convention office and the staff within that convention that I related to, I visited the South Carolina Baptist Convention. During our meeting I was handed a book written by Dr. B. Carlisle Driggers, Executive Director of the South Carolina Baptist Convention, “A Journey of Faith and Hope,” and asked to read it in order to understand the focus of the South Carolina Baptist Convention. The book records the development of Empowering Kingdom Growth as an emphasis in South Carolina.

Soon, traveling across South Carolina, speaking in churches and associations, I discovered a different spirit from what I was experiencing in other Southern Baptist Churches and associations—a spirit of cooperation and a heart for missions. Later in the fall I heard Dr. Driggers speak on the “kingdom of God” where he challenged each one present to read through the New Testament and examine closely each of the references to the kingdom of God. I took the challenge and quickly discovered that there were 139 references to the kingdom of God (or kingdom of heaven). As I read each of the references in their context, I wondered how a subject of this magnitude and of such great importance to God could have escaped my attention through Bible College, seminary, and over 30 years of pastoring. Oh, I knew the answer, for I came from an eschatological belief that separated the kingdom of God from the kingdom of heaven and taught the kingdom of God as a future hope, not a present reality. From within that framework I passed off those who spoke of the kingdom of God as being present as either misguided in their eschatology or as a part of the liberal social gospel movement.

Soon after reading through the kingdom references in the New Testament, I begin a pilgrimage to discover just what the kingdom of God is and how relevant it is in today’s world.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

Introduction

Over the next four years I read volumes of books by various evangelical authors—Russell Moore, Tony Evans, John Bright, George E. Ladd, E. Stanley Jones, D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones, Dwight Pentecost, and many others who wrote from different perspectives on the kingdom. A portion of each morning was set aside to pursue this search to understand the kingdom of God. Again and again I was driven back to the Scriptures to search out what God was teaching me through His Word. I found myself praying each morning a simple prayer, “Father, I want to understand what You are teaching in Your Word about Your kingdom in today’s world. Please allow the Holy Spirit, who wrote Your Word, to open and illuminate my mind to understand Your kingdom.”

In time I begin to see the kingdom of God as both a present reality and a future hope, as that which is both “at hand” (Matthew 4:17) and that which is to come (2 Timothy 4:1; James 2:5). It was the present kingdom that Jesus often spoke about (Luke 8:1), that he sent the disciples out to preach (Luke 9:2), and that the early church proclaimed (Acts 8:12; 19:8; 28:23, 31). So important was the present reality of the kingdom of God that Luke tells us in Acts 1:3, that Jesus spent His last forty days on earth teaching His disciples about the kingdom of God. While Jesus could have spoken on many matters, apparently He felt that a clear understanding of the kingdom of God surpassed in importance all other subjects. As I repeatedly read the verse, I concluded that if Jesus placed such a high priority on the kingdom of God, then so should I and, more importantly, so should the church, which, while not the kingdom of God, is the visible expression of God’s kingdom in the world.

Over time I came to understand that the kingdom of God is the reign and rule of God in this age in the hearts and lives of those who yield themselves to Him. To recognize the kingdom as being present allows Christians to experience the blessings of Christ’s reign now as well as anticipate it in the future age. Ignoring the presence of the kingdom in this age robs the Gospels of their emphasis and Jesus of His message (Luke 5:43). The kingdom of God has come in the Person and ministry of Jesus (Matthew 12:28). The mystery of the kingdom is its secret intrusion into history (Matthew 13). To see the kingdom as futuristic deprives it of its influence on the earth today. Perhaps the failure of the modern church in the United States to have the positive influence needed is due to the failure of mainstream evangelical Christianity to teach the present reality of “God’s kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.”

The following devotional thoughts are some of my reflections on the kingdom of God as I continue to study the subject and struggle to understand its truths in today’s world and the implication of these truths on Christians in general and my life in particular. As a result of this journey of discovery, I have learned to pray as Jesus taught His disciples to pray, “Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven” (Matthew 6:10), and to put into practice the exhortation of Christ to “seek first the kingdom of God.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God  Day 1

Seek The Kingdom

In the Word: Matthew 6:31-34

"But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you" (Matthew 6:33).

What is your purpose in life? What is your reason for living? A mother may answer, “It is my children.” A businessman might answer, “It is my work.” How would you answer the question?

In the first recorded message of Jesus, He "came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, ‘The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.’” (Mark 1:14-15 NASB). To Jesus the kingdom of God was the very essence of life, so much so that He talked more on the kingdom than any other subject. Within the Gospels we find 139 references by Jesus to the kingdom of God or its equivalent.

Therefore when Jesus says, “seek first the kingdom of God,” it is not just a statement or part of a sermon, it is His heartbeat, it is a matter of great importance, it is a life choice. In fact, if you are a true follower of Jesus Christ, it is your life choice, the core purpose of your existence.

E. Stanley Jones writes, “If Jesus made the kingdom of God the center of his message and the center of his endeavor, the greatest need of man, as I see it, is to rediscover the kingdom of God. Man needs nothing so much as he needs something to bring life together into total meaning and total goal. Life for the modern man … needs something to give total meaning to an otherwise fragmented life.” He continues, “He is confused—the most confused and yet the most intelligent person that ever existed. He knows everything about life, except how to live it.”

Discovering and seeking the kingdom of God is life transforming. It gives real meaning and purpose to living the Christian life. In the sidebar write your definition of the kingdom of God.

Jesus said that when we pray, we are to say, “Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven” (Matthew 6:10).

Prayer: “Father, may Your Kingdom come, may Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.”

My definition of the Kingdom of God is ...

The kingdom of God does not exist to serve Christians; Christians exist to serve the kingdom of God (Matthew 10:34-39; 12:46-50). The goal of the kingdom is not to serve us in being more effective and productive in our jobs. Our work is truly effective when it serves to express the will of God. The patterns of our lives are not made secure by the kingdom of God; the kingdom of God rearranges them into the new design of God's own making.
What is the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Matthew 6:5-13

“Pray then like this ... Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.” (Matthew 6:9, 10)

If I am to seek after the kingdom of God, if I am to pray for the kingdom to come, then what is the kingdom of God? Is it a physical kingdom that will be inaugurated with the return of Christ? Or is it a kingdom that is present in the world today, a kingdom in which I am living as a child of God.

In the New Testament two key phrases refer to the same thing: the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of God. Passages referring to God’s kingdom appear 50 times in the Gospel of Matthew with the phrase “kingdom of heaven” occurring 33 times. Mark, Luke and John refer to it as the “kingdom of God.” Both phrases refer to the sphere of God’s dominion over those who belong to Him. Thus, the “kingdom of God” is where God reigns.

It began when God himself entered human history as a man (John 1:14) and indicates a present reality and a future hope. Today the kingdom of God is manifested as Jesus Christ reigns in the hearts of those who are believers (Luke 17:21). One day the kingdom will be fully realized when Christ returns and all evil in the world is judged and removed (Revelation 20:4-6). In His first Advent, Christ came to earth as a suffering Servant; when He returns He will come as King and Judge to rule victoriously over all the earth. And so we pray, “Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”
If the kingdom of God today is the reign of Christ in the hearts of believers, then we must give His kingdom our highest priority (Luke 6:46) and live in obedience to His Lordship. E. Stanley Jones writes, “There is a way to live and Jesus and his kingdom are the way, and we have missed the way and hence our present chaos and confusion.”

Why seek first the kingdom of God? Because Jesus knew that until He rules and reigns in the hearts of believers they will never be truly free, they will never experience true joy and happiness, they will never discover their real purpose in life.

Prayer: “Father, I want to truly discover Your kingdom in our world today. Open my mind to understand Your truths as You teach me.”
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 3:2)

The preaching of John the Baptist centered on one message, preparing the hearts of his listeners for the coming Messiah. Since this preparation could only occur through repentance, John called the people to repent, that is to turn away from their sins and turn toward God.

Without apology or hesitation, John preached that the people could not say they believed and then live any way they wanted. To be truly repentant, people must do both. John spoke of repentance as a radical turning from sin that would manifest itself in the fruit of righteousness (Matthew 3:7-8). They had to understand that they were sinners, that sin is wrong, and that they needed to change both their attitude and their conduct.

John’s call to repentance was a totally new concept for Jews who considered themselves already "the people of God." In the Old Testament, "repent" means the radical return to God of those who have broken the covenant with him and John used the word this way.

The obvious question then is why did they need this radical repentance? Because the kingdom of heaven (God) is here, it has arrived. This kingdom began when God himself entered human history as a man (John 1:14; Galatians 4:4-7).

The message of John is the message for us today. “Repentance means that we must do an about-face—a 180-degree turn—from the kind of self-centeredness that leads to wrong actions such as lying, cheating, stealing, gossiping, taking revenge, abusing, and indulging in sexual immorality.

A person who stops rebelling and begins following God's way of living prescribed in his Word is a person who has repented and entered the kingdom of God. The first step in turning to God is to admit your sin, as John urged. Then God will receive you and help you live the way he wants. Remember that only God can remove sin. He doesn't expect us to clean up our lives before we come to him.

Prayer: “Jesus, I want to thank you for coming into the world and providing the way for me to become a part of God’s Kingdom.”

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. (Galatians 4:4-7)
Discovering the Kingdom of God  Day 4

The King Is Here

In the Word: Matthew 4:12-17

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel." (Mark 1:14-15)

Jews of Jesus' day understood exactly what Jesus meant when he proclaimed “the time is fulfilled”. The Greek word used for time, kairos, refers to a particular time period with its beginning marked by an extremely important event. This placed Jesus' coming in the center of God's plan for revelation and redemption. The Old Testament prophets often spoke of the future kingdom, ruled by a descendant of King David, that would be established on earth and exist for eternity. Thus when Jesus spoke of the "time" and the presence of the kingdom of God, the Jews understood him to mean that the Messiah had come to "fulfill" or inaugurate his long-awaited kingdom. Jesus reassured them that God was in sovereign control. He had begun to act in a new and decisive way. The most critical time had come. The door to God's great future had been flung open.

Of course, this caused great excitement among the people. The problem arose, however, in the misunderstanding of the nature of this kingdom. The kingdom of God began when God entered history as a human being. But the kingdom of God will not be fully realized until all evil in the world has been judged and removed. Christ came to earth first as a suffering Servant; he will come again as King and Judge to rule victoriously over all the earth. The kingdom he inaugurated on earth would not overthrow Roman oppression and

Why did Jesus come to earth?

"From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 4:17)

“From this time begin his solemn stated preaching. Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand - Although it is the peculiar business of Christ to establish the kingdom of heaven in the hearts of men, yet it is observable, he begins his preaching in the same words with John the Baptist: because the repentance which John taught still was, and ever will be, the necessary preparation for that inward kingdom. But that phrase is not only used with regard to individuals in whom it is to be established, but also with regard to the Christian Church, the whole body of believers.”

(John Wesley, Wesley’s Notes)
bring universal peace immediately. The kingdom of God that began quietly in Palestine was God's rule in people's hearts. The everlasting kingdom would not begin for many years (it has not yet begun), yet the kingdom was as near as people's willingness to make Jesus king over their lives. As Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:21 NIV). The everlasting kingdom may still be many years away for us, yet it is as near as accepting Jesus' sacrifice for salvation. (Life Application Bible Commentary)

Today, the kingdom of God is the rule and reign of Christ over those who have been born again. Does Christ rule and reign in your life?

Prayer: "Father, today I surrender all that I am, all that I possess, my talents, my time, my life to You. You are my Lord and my King."

"Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2:5-11)
Discovering the Kingdom of God  Day 5

The Kingdom of God

In the Word: Isaiah 11:1-9

“He shall judge between the nations, and shall decide disputes for many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.” (Isaiah 2:4).

Deeply rooted within the teaching of the Jewish rabbis of Christ’s day was the promise of the coming of the kingdom of God. The prophets had declared the kingdom as a day in which men and women would live together in peace, where social problems would be solved and the evil would pass away (Isaiah. 2:4; 11:6). They had predicted the coming of the Messiah whose mission would be the re-constituting of the Jewish nation; the re-occupation by them of the land of Palestine; the setting up again of the earthly throne of David; and the exaltation of the people of Israel to the place of supremacy in the world (Daniel 7:13-14).

So intent were they on the physical kingdom of God that they missed the kingdom when it came. Consequently, when Christ came to His own people proclaiming that the Kingdom of God was at hand (Matthew 4:17), but making it known that the kingdom He proclaimed did not correspond with their idea of it; when He said, "My kingdom is not of this world" (John 18:36), and taught that his kingdom was of such that a man must be born of the Spirit in order to enter it (John 3:3), then they rejected Him ("received Him not") hated Him, betrayed Him and caused Him to be put to death.

Describe the last time you heard a sermon on living out the kingdom of God in our world today?

“I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.” (Daniel 7:13-14)
During the twentieth century, conservative Christianity in America became so fixated on the second coming of Christ and the establishment of the earthly kingdom of God that, like the Jewish rabbis of the first century, many missed the kingdom of God in their midst. While the kingdom is future, it is also now present, in our midst, calling for us to live accordingly as citizens of the kingdom under the Lordship of Christ.

When I recognize that I am now in the kingdom, under the Lordship of Christ, then I must also recognize that I have a responsibility to live according to His kingdom values, not the values of another kingdom. I am His, bought with a price, His life.

Prayer: "Father, show me the way to live in your kingdom today."
Discovering the Kingdom of God Day 6

The Kingdom Is Important

In the Word: Acts 1:1-11

To them he presented himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. (Acts 1:3)

A quick glance through the New Testament reveals that the kingdom of God is at the heart of the preaching of Jesus, of John the Baptist, the apostles, and the early church. Following the resurrection, Jesus spent his last forty days on earth teaching the disciples about the kingdom of God. With all that He could have talked about with His disciples—heaven, the future, He chose instead to spend His time talking to them about the kingdom of God.

If Jesus made the kingdom of God the heart of His message and the focus of His endeavor, then the greatest need of humanity is to rediscover the kingdom of God; in fact, I believe that the greatest need of modern Christianity is to rediscover the kingdom of God.

“Today people are in desperate need of something to bring life together into total meaning and purpose. Without meaning and purpose life becomes fragmented as people are pushed and pulled and tempted from all directions. Even the most intelligent person soon becomes confused living a life without meaning and purpose. He knows everything about life, except how to live it.

Modern humanity stands between two worlds, this one and the one not yet born, the one which is to come. He stands there empty, for meaning has dropped out of life. He would stand for anything if it gave him meaning and purpose for living and for dying.”

Into that vacuum steps Jesus saying if you are seeking meaning and

If the kingdom of God was at the heart of all Jesus taught, explain why the teaching of the kingdom of God should or should not be important today.

“But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.” (Acts 8:12)

“And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God.” (Acts 19:8)
purpose in life then “seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.” That is, yield yourself completely to Me, let me be the Lord of your life today. Jesus is saying, “Follow my precepts, my teaching, my values, and you will find real meaning and purpose in life.”

“And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will accept. When you think of what he has done for you, is this too much to ask? Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will know what God wants you to do, and you will know how good and pleasing and perfect his will really is.” (Romans 12:1-2 NLT)

Prayer: “Father, today I surrender to Your Lordship over my life.”

[Paul] “lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.” (Acts 28:30-31)

There are 139 references to the kingdom of God or kingdom of heaven in the New Testament.
Defining The Kingdom of God

In the Word: Luke 17:20-21

"the kingdom of God is within you." Luke 17:20-21 (NIV)

Having concluded among themselves that Jesus was not the Messiah, the Pharisees mockingly asked Jesus “when the kingdom of God would come.” They believed the Messiah’s reign would be immediate, that He would come and overthrow Rome and set up the His Kingdom. However, the kingdom of God that Jesus had already inaugurated was altogether different. It was a kingdom which would manifest itself in the rule of God in men’s hearts through faith in Christ.

Paul stated it well in Romans 14:17, “God's kingdom isn't a matter of what you put in your stomach, for goodness' sake. It's what God does with your life as he sets it right, puts it together, and completes it with joy.” (The Message)

The kingdom of God was neither confined to a particular geographical location nor visible to human eyes. It would not come with the normal pomp and splendor associated with the arrival of a king. It would come quietly, manifesting itself through the lives of people transformed by the grace of God (Ephesians 2:8-10), living under the Lordship of Christ (Romans 10:9), for the kingdom today is the reign of God in the hearts and lives of those who yield themselves to Him.

Furthermore, the kingdom of God will come in the future when...
Christ returns. The New Testament does not suggest that the Old Testament promises of an earthly kingdom were nullified, instead it teaches that the earthly, visible manifestation of the kingdom is yet to come (Revelation 20:1-6). Peter looks to that future day when “there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 1:11).

So, the kingdom of God is present, already among us (Luke 17:21), and yet Jesus also frequently referred to the kingdom as a future event "I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 8:11 also see Matthew 13:41-43).

Since the kingdom of God is now present, we must ask first, are you in the kingdom? That is, have you surrendered to the Lordship of Christ in your life? If so, are you living out the kingdom values and lifestyle? If not, why not?

Prayer: “Father, there is much about your kingdom I do not understand, open my mind to understand and grasp your truth.”

“For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.” (Ephesians 2:8-10)

“That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” (Romans 10:9 NIV)

The Power of the Kingdom

In the Word: Acts 19:1-20

And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. (Acts 19:8)

How powerful is the kingdom of God? It is powerful enough to penetrate a society obsessed with the worship of the goddess Diana. It is powerful enough to impact a thriving city. It is powerful enough to turn people from darkness to light, to make them a new creation in Christ.

Ephesus was the capital of the Roman province of Asia and home of one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, the magnificent temple of Diana. It was also an important political, educational, and commercial center in southern Asia Minor. It was a city that placed great value on materialism, sensuality, and the occult. It was a city under the control of Satan.

Into this city, similar to twenty-first century America, came Paul boldly doing his best to make the things of the kingdom of God real and convincing to them. Paul did not come with a self-help program or twelve steps to freedom from your pet sin. He did not come into the city and organize a demonstration against the religious prostitution taking place at the temple of Diana, nor did he take his fight to the local media.

Instead, Paul spent the first three months pointing his listeners to

"And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again."
(Acts 20:25)

"Wherever the church allows "the kingdom of God is at hand" to be separated from Jesus' call for people to follow him, the game is up. The vital nerve of the Christian movement has been severed."

Describe how the teaching of the kingdom of God would affect your community or city?
the things related to the kingdom of God. When he could no longer teach in the synagogue, he moved into the school of Tyrannus and for the next two years taught them until “all the residents of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks” (Acts 19:10).

So powerful was Paul’s teaching on the kingdom of God that within two years the sinful lifestyle of the city was so impacted that it was affecting the financial income of those who made their living from the “sin business.” During this time churches were founded in Ephesus, Colosse, Hierapolis, and possibly in some of the places mentioned in Revelation chapters 2 and 3. A city was changed by the teaching of Paul on the kingdom of God.

What would be the impact of your church on your community or city, if we were to rediscover the things of the kingdom of God?

Prayer: “Father, help us to rediscover Your kingdom and impact our world as Paul impacted his world.”

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.” (2 Corinthians 5:17-21)
Discovering the Kingdom of God

Day 9

Entering The Kingdom

In the Word: John 3:1-21

"Unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3)

The kingdom of God belongs to the present as well as the future and is the rule of God, His reign, His divine sovereignty in action. So, if the kingdom of God is now present, then how does a person enter into the kingdom?

Having observed the life and ministry of Jesus, and filled with questions, a prominent Pharisee named Nicodemus came to Jesus one night seeking to learn more about Him. Nicodemus opened the conversation by complimenting Jesus on being a teacher sent by God (3:2). Imagine his shock when Jesus reversed the flow of discussion from his identity as a God-sent teacher to the crucial question of the destiny of each person and how they must enter the kingdom of God. Jesus said, "Unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God," and "Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God" (3:3,5).

As a rabbi, Nicodemus knew what Jesus meant. He was aware that John the Baptist was baptizing people in water as a symbol of their inward repentance (John 3:23). What flashed across Nicodemus' mind was: "except you are born of all that water baptism signifies, which is repentance, and that which Spirit baptism accomplishes, which is regeneration, you cannot enter the kingdom of God." In a flash, Nicodemus saw very clearly that no one is born again if there is no

Write about the time when you entered the kingdom of God through the new birth?

“From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” (Matthew 4:17)

“John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there, and people were coming and being baptized.” (John 3:23)
repentance; and along with repentance comes a work of the Spirit in the heart. These are the nonnegotiables of being born again. Then, as the conversation unfolded Jesus made it clear that the kingdom of God was associated with eternal life and that one must be born from above (born again) in order to enter into the kingdom (John 3:9-16).

Have you entered the kingdom of God? A person can be moral, upright in the community, attend religious services and activities, practice piety, and still not be in the kingdom of God. The only way into the kingdom is by repenting of your sin and acknowledging Jesus as your Savior and Lord. Have you been born again? If so, take a few moments and thank God for your salvation. Ask Him to help you better understand what it means to be in His kingdom today. If you have never been born again, you can be born again by surrendering yourself to Christ and receiving Him as your Savior and Lord (Romans 10:9,13).

Prayer: “Father, I want to thank you for allowing me to be a part of your kingdom through the new birth.”
Rediscovering the Kingdom—1

In the Word: Acts 28:17-31

He lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance. (Acts 28:30-31)

The Book of Acts begins and ends with the kingdom of God (1:3; 28:23, 31). From Jerusalem to Samaria (8:12) to cities across Asia Minor and Europe—everywhere the gospel was taken the kingdom of God was preached and local congregations were established. The preaching of the gospel and the kingdom of God went hand in hand. The call to salvation was a call to totally surrender to Jesus Christ as Lord.

Over the centuries, whenever the church has declared the kingdom of God it has advanced, and whenever the church has ceased to declare the kingdom of God it has declined. The last half of the twentieth century in the United States was a period of time when the church focused on the kingdom which was to come and failed to preach that the kingdom of God was present today. The church was so concerned with getting out of this world and leaving it to the antichrist that little attention was given to preparing the next generation of followers and leaders. This harsh reality is reflected in our absence of a powerful witness in today’s society.

As a result, while Christians were anxious about getting out of the world, various kinds of personal and national sins emerged. Because it is impossible to maintain values in a vacuum, when Christianity is absent, when the kingdom of God is not preached, sin moves in.

“To them he presented himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.” (Acts 1:3)
Discovering the Kingdom of God       Day 10

Problems such as abortion, child abuse, divorce, drug use and addiction, alcoholism, sexual perversion and pornography fill the market place. Where a biblical worldview once prevailed, humanism has moved in and the Ten Commandments, prayer, and Bible reading are being removed from public places.

It was a similar world into which the early church went preaching the gospel and declaring the kingdom of God. As the church lived out the kingdom of God they changed their world. When today’s church rediscovers the kingdom of God, it will once again impact the world.

Prayer: “Father, help me to understand what it means to live out the values of your kingdom in our world today.”

“When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in greater numbers. From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.”
(Acts 8:23)

“But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.”
(Acts 8:12)
Rediscovering the Kingdom—2

In the Word: Luke 4:40-44

But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well; for I was sent for this purpose." (Luke 4:43)

Going to extremes can be dangerous. Partially in reaction to the spiritualizing of the kingdom of God, and partially in reaction to the discovery of the kingdom of God in the eschatological dimension, for many evangelicals over the past fifty years, the kingdom of God became totally futuristic at the expense of ignoring the kingdom as now present. While initially understanding the teachings of Jesus on the kingdom of God as purely eschatological brought about a renewed emphasis on evangelism and missions now present in the United States, the long term impact of neglecting the kingdom of God is now evident. Consider the following:

- It is estimated that there are over 200 million unchurched people in America making the U.S. the third largest unchurched nation following China and India. (NAMB)
- No county in America has a greater percentage of churched persons today than a decade ago. (Barna and ASCG)
- In the USA we lose 72 churches per week or 10.27 per day. We gain 24 churches per week or 3.42 per day. That’s a net loss of 48 churches per week or 6.85 per day. (NAMB)
- North America is the ONLY continent where Christianity is not growing.

This supposed Christian nation leads the world in every category of violent and domestic crime and social decay.” - Tom Clegg
Discovering the Kingdom of God

- Evangelical churches have spent $250 billion in the last 50 years and have failed to gain an additional two-percent of the American population. In other words, we aren’t even reaching our children! - George Barna in American Profile.

- It is estimated that 53,000 people in the US leave churches every week and never come back. (Harvest America, Vol. 1, No 2, 1994)

Jesus called for His followers to be salt and light, to be like a mustard seed, to be like yeast in this world, to live a lifestyle that reflects the life of Christ within the kingdom of God (Matthew 5:13-16; 13:31, 33). The church in the twenty-first century will only become effective when it rediscovers the kingdom of God in our world today.

Prayer: “Father, again I pray, help me to understand what it means to live out the values of your kingdom in our world today.”

Rise up, O men of God!

Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things.
Give heart and mind and soul and strength
To serve the King of kings.

Rise up, O men of God!
The kingdom tarries long.
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong.

Rise up, O men of God!
The church for you doth wait,
Her strength unequal to her task;
Rise up and make her great!

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where His feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of Man,
Rise up, O men of God!

Rediscovering the Kingdom—3

In the Word: Luke 19:11-27

"I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away." (Luke 19:26)

The kingdom of God is both now and not yet. Accordingly, the kingdom of God is realized and present in one sense, and yet consistent and future in another. This is not a contradiction, but simply the nature of the kingdom. The kingdom has come in fulfillment of the Old Testament promises and a new covenant has been established, while its final manifestation and consummation lie in the future. Until then we are to be good and faithful servants, living under the Lordship of Christ. It is our failure to be faithful servants in living out the kingdom that has gotten Christianity in America in the predicament it is in today. Again, consider:

- While the US population increased 11.4% or 24,153,000 people over the last 10 years, the combined communicant membership of protestant churches declined 9.5% or 4,498,242 people. (NAMB)

- Half of all churches last year did not add one new member through “conversion growth.” (Barna and ASCG)

- According to Barna Research, of the 350,000 churches in the US: 80% are plateaued or declining, 15% are growing because of biological or transfer growth, and 5% are growing because of conversion growth. Other authorities say that only 1% to 2% of the churches in the US are growing.

Take time to pray, asking God to give you an understanding of what it means to live in His kingdom.

Living for Jesus

Living for Jesus, a life that is true, Striving to please Him in all that I do; Yielding allegiance, glad hearted and free, This is the pathway of blessing for me.

O Jesus, Lord and Savior, I give myself to Thee, For Thou, in Thy atonement, didst give Thyself for me. I own no other Master, my heart shall be Thy throne. My life I give, henceforth to live, O Christ, for Thee alone.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

Day 12

- Cults are responding to the void. For example, during the reign of Spencer W. Kimball as President, Prophet, Seer and Revelator of the Mormon Church, it nearly doubled...to 5.8 million members with a force of 30,000 short-term missionaries.

- The largest Christian church in the world is in Seoul, S Korea (a Buddhist nation) while the largest Buddhist Temple in the world is in Boulder, CO.

- The second largest Christian church in the world is in Leagers, Nigeria (a Muslim nation) while the largest Muslim training center in the world is in New York City, NY.

Perhaps it is time we rediscover the kingdom of God, its lifestyle and its teaching, and the Christ whose example we are to follow (1 Peter 2:1).

Prayer: “Father, again I pray, help me to understand what it means to live out the values of your kingdom in our world today.”

Living for Jesus
Who died in my place,
Bearing on Calvary
my sin and disgrace;
Such love constrains
me to answer His call,
Follow His leading and give Him my all.

Living for Jesus, wherever I am,
Doing each duty in His holy Name;
Willing to suffer
affliction and loss,
Deeming each trial
a part of my cross.

Living for Jesus through earth’s little while,
My dearest treasure, the light of His smile;
Seeking the lost ones He died to redeem,
Bringing the weary to find rest in Him.

The Gospel of the Kingdom

In the Word: Mark 1:14-15

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel." (Mark 1:14-15)

The three synoptic gospels record that following the baptism and temptation of Christ, He began His earthly ministry in Galilee proclaiming the good news of God. "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!" (NIV).

The English word gospel means "good news." In the New Testament it means the "good tidings" of the Kingdom of God and of salvation through the finished work of Christ. Thus, the message of Jesus “about the kingdom of God was not merely instruction or prophecy or promise; it was the proclamation of good news. It was gospel.”6

The prophets had promised a time when the good news would be proclaimed that God was visiting his people (Isaiah 40:9-10; 61:1-2) to bring salvation. Luke’s gospel records that in the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus claimed that this gospel was no longer hope but an event (Luke 4:18). “The time of fulfillment had come.” Jesus had been anointed to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. In the proclamation of the gospel, promise had become fulfillment.

“Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good news; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good news; lift it up, fear not; say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"
Behold, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.” (Isaiah 40:9-10)
Discovering the Kingdom of God       Day 13

“The Kingdom was present not only in deed but also in word.”

The dynamic presence of the kingdom of God is found in both the deeds and words of Jesus. He preached the gospel of the kingdom, He demonstrated the kingdom’s presence with His authority over demons, sickness, and nature, and He taught that the kingdom was more than a new birth, it was a lifestyle, a transformed life, a whole new way of living (Matthew 5-7).

A rediscovery of the kingdom of God in modern Christianity will bring about a lifestyle so radically different from the world, a value system, a worldview so different from the world that men and women will be drawn to the kingdom of God. The gospel is as much about living today as it is about spending eternity with God.

Prayer: “Father, help me to understand Your kingdom in today’s world.”

“The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn.”

(Isaiah 61:1-2)
Surrender and the Kingdom

In the Word: Luke 9:57-62

Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God." (Luke 9:62)

Life in the kingdom calls for a complete surrender to Jesus as Lord and to His values. Luke records for us an occasion when two men approach Jesus and a third man is invited by Jesus to, “Follow Me.” In each case the men were willing to follow Jesus on their terms, but not with total surrender. Jesus is not calling for the men to neglect their families, but He is calling for total surrender if they are going to follow Him. He must be the highest priority in their life.

Modern Christianity has reduced God’s total plan for men to simply an acknowledgment of Christ as Savior. The prevailing thought is a person’s decision for Christ does not have to be followed by a surrender of their life to Christ, just a commitment. The call is to get people saved, not to develop a kingdom lifestyle.

The dictionary defines commitment as the act of binding yourself (intellectually or emotionally) to a course of action, and surrender as the act of yielding, or resigning one's person, or the possession of something, into the power of another. While we often speak of commitment, the real issue is surrender.

Jesus preached repentance, Jesus preached surrender to Himself. In Matthew 19:16-26 we read the account of the rich young ruler who came to Jesus and said, "What must I do to have eternal life?" And

“For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. What the true proverb says has happened to them: 'The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire.'”

(2 Peter 2:20-22)
Jesus said, "Sell all you have," and do what? "Give it to the poor" and "Come follow Me."

What is Jesus saying? The young man said, "I want eternal life." Jesus said, "Yes, that's fine, but we are going to deal with something else first, are you willing to follow me?" He could have asked him anything, instead he gave an arbitrary command, "Sell all, give to the poor." Because He knew that money was the god of this man's life. Jesus said, "Let's deal with the issue, I know that you want eternal life, but are you willing to give up everything, if I ask you?" The Bible says the young man went away sorrowful. Salvation is an exchange of all that I am for all that He is. It's saying, "I won't follow me, I'll follow you."

Prayer: “Father, today I surrender my all completely to You. You are Lord.”

"Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

(Luke 6:46-49)

More About Jesus

In the Word: Matthew 11:25-30

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me,
for I am gentle and lowly in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls. (Matthew 11:29)

Do you desire to truly know God and His Kingdom? If so, hear the words of Jesus, “All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him … learn from me” (Matthew 11:27, 29).

William Barclay writes, “This passage closes with the greatest claim that Jesus ever made, the claim which is the center of the Christian faith, that he alone can reveal God to men. Other men may be sons of God; he is The Son. John put this in a different way, when he tells us that Jesus said, "He who has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:19). What Jesus says is this: "If you want to see what God is like, if you want to see the mind of God, the heart of God, the nature of God, if you want to see God's whole attitude to men--look at me!" It is the Christian conviction that in Jesus Christ alone we see what God is like; and it is also the Christian conviction that Jesus can give that knowledge to anyone who is humble enough and trustful enough to receive it.”

Do you desire to truly know God? Do you desire to know more about living in His Kingdom? About living His kind of lifestyle? If so, Jesus promised, “If you will walk with me, if you will work with

This promise of learning is given to those who are diligent. It is not given to those who are lazy. Those who wear the yoke of Christ will be taught. Those who serve will be trained. Those who labor will learn. Those not interested in working will not learn from Jesus.

While Christ is not physically with us today, He has sent the Holy Spirit to live in everyone that is born again (Romans 8:9-11; 1 Corinthians 6:19-20). Pray today that the Spirit of God, who guides and teaches those who seek to know more about God and His Kingdom (John 14:26; 16:13; 1 Corinthians 2:10-13), will teach you His truths in the days ahead.

Learning from Jesus

In the Word: Ephesians 4:17-32

But you did not learn Christ in this way, if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught in Him, just as truth is in Jesus. Ephesians 4:20-21 (NASB)

In great contrast to the unbelieving Gentiles described in verses 17-19, Paul reminds the Ephesian believers that they had been taught and had learned about Christ from himself as well as from other teachers. To know Christ is the greatest knowledge that anyone can have.

That knowledge is the truth and that knowledge opposes what the evil world teaches and applauds. Therefore, what the Ephesians and the other believers were taught should make all the difference in their lifestyles.

To show that the believer is to be radically different from the nonbeliever, Paul describes the new life we have in Christ. In direct contrast to the preceding description of the unregenerate person, Paul describes the new life of the believer by illustrating three truths. He writes:

- believers have new minds: "But that isn't what you were taught when you learned about Christ. Surely you heard of him and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. You were taught . . . to be renewed in the spirit of your minds."

- believers have new hearts: "[You were taught] to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires."

• believers have a new behavior: "Clothe yourselves with the new self, created according to the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness."

From darkened minds, hearts, and behavior, to new ones—this is the complete contrast from the old self to the new. Does your life reflect this contrast, the marks of the new life of the believer? Are there evidences of it in your thinking, desires, will, and behavior?

Prayer: “Father, from Christ I want to learn not only what it means to be a believer, but how to live the Christian life.”

Discovering the Kingdom of God

Day 17

Living in the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Matthew 5:1-12

"Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." (Luke 12:32)

On a hillside near Capernaum Jesus spent some time teaching his disciples, and the crowds that followed him, that God required faithful and sincere obedience, not ceremonial religion. In His famous Sermon on the Mount Jesus challenged the teachings of the proud and legalistic religious leaders of that day, calling the people back to heartfelt obedience, not just an outward observance of laws and rituals.

Over the centuries since Jesus gave the Sermon on the Mount various interpretations have been offered from those who felt that it was an impossible ideal. Some have taught that it was only for Jesus’ disciples, others saw it as a mandate for the church to usher in the kingdom of God by means of reforming society, and still others viewed it as laws of the kingdom age yet to come. Thus, by either ignoring the principles Jesus taught or misusing them, the modern church in America has lost its cohesiveness and its effectiveness as salt and light in our world.

When we examine carefully the Sermon on the Mount we see that it is “life lived as illustrated in the life of Jesus and in a lesser way in the lives of those shaped and guided by the Kingdom. So this is not an exhortation to live by the Kingdom, but an exhibition of life lived in and by the Kingdom.”

Explain what you think it means to have heartfelt obedience?

There is a way to live and Jesus and His kingdom are that way, and we have missed the way and hence our present chaos and confusion.

(E. Stanley Jones)
“So this sermon is not written in the subjunctive or the imperative mode. It is in the indicative mode. “How blessed are,” not how blessed you should be, or must be, but how blessed are. This is a description of how the universe in the individual and in society works. Furthermore, it is given by the most authoritative Person in that universe—Jesus Christ. In the language of today: ‘He is telling it like it is.’”

Kingdom living is not about me, it is about Him. It is learning from Jesus His way of living (Philippians 2:5; 1 John 2:6; John 13:15) and in doing so we truly learn the meaning of “Blessed are you.”

Prayer: “Father, since living in heartfelt obedience to You is the way to truly living a blessed life, give me a heartfelt obedience towards you.”
Disciples of the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Luke 14:25-33

Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:27)

As Jesus was traveling toward Jerusalem large crowds joined him and from His remarks, many of these casual followers considered themselves his disciples. Perhaps they thought he was the Messiah and wanted to be there when he inaugurated his kingdom or maybe like children they were following Him in hopes of receiving goodies or benefiting from one of His miracles (John 6:26).

Jesus turned around and told them flatly what it meant to truly follow him. They would have to give up everything, even the most treasured relationships with their families. They would have to put Jesus first in their lives. Jesus never adapted His message to majority preferences, but instead always plainly declared the high cost of discipleship. Thus, Jesus not only warned them of the difficulties they would encounter, he also gave each of them the option to rid themselves of any obligation to him (14:33).

Jesus was not a crowd pleaser. Jesus was not a salesman and He did not try to sell Christianity by telling people the benefits they would receive, the wonderful experiences they would have, and the reasons they should follow him. Instead, he told them the costs, the hardships, and the difficulties they would experience, and he encouraged them to carefully evaluate the costs before they followed him.

“And he said to all, ‘If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.’”

(Luke 9:23)

Discovering the Kingdom of God Day 18

What does it mean to count the cost before following Christ?
Besides being willing to love Jesus more than any other and more than life itself, the true disciple must be ready to carry the cross and follow Him (Luke 9:23). Those listening were well aware of what it meant to "carry the cross." When the Romans led a criminal to his execution site, the criminal would be forced to carry the cross on which he would die. This showed submission to Rome and warned observers that they had better submit too.

Jesus gave this teaching to get the crowds to think through their enthusiasm for him. He is encouraging those who were superficial either to go deeper or to turn back. To follow Christ means total submission to him, perhaps even to the point of death. In the kingdom of God there is no place for the casual follower.

Prayer: “Father, having counted the cost, I totally surrender to You.”
Living Out the Kingdom of God—1

In the Word: Matthew 5:13-16

"You are the salt of the earth ...
You are the light of the world." (Matthew 5:13, 14)

God has an agenda for our lives. In a world where people live segmented, compartmentalized lives because they lack a kingdom world view and families disintegrate because they exist for their own fulfillment rather than for the kingdom, we need to rediscover the kingdom of God and His agenda.

In a world where the church has become divided, ingrown, and unable to transform the culture landscape in any significant way, we need to rediscover the kingdom of God. Tony Evans writes, “Churches are having a limited impact on society because they fail to understand that the goal of the church is not the church itself but the kingdom.”

Using images that were commonly used by the listeners, Jesus said that kingdom people are to be like salt and light. They are to have a kingdom influence on the world.

Even as salt preserves and brings out the best flavor of food, so believers should affect others positively. If salt has lost its taste, it has no value. Jesus clearly told his disciples that if they wanted to make a difference in the world, they would have to be different from the world. He also tells them that God would hold them accountable to maintain their "saltiness," their usefulness. If we are too much like the world, we are useless. As Christians we should not blend in with everyone else. Jesus tells us, as he told the disciples, that we must be different if we want to make a difference. We dare not allow the world to dilute our effectiveness. If we do, we are of no value to Him.

Then Jesus goes one step further and teaches that even as salt makes a difference in people's food, so light makes a difference in their surroundings. Later He would explain, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life" (John 8:12 ). Christ's disciples must live for Christ, shining like lights in a dark world, showing clearly what Christ is like. Who could hide a city that is sitting on top of a hill? Lanterns glowing from behind its walls send a light at night that can be seen for miles. Because Jesus is the Light of the World, his followers must reflect his light. If we live for Christ, we will glow like lights, showing others what Christ is like.

Prayer: “Father, let me be salt and light to all I come in contact with today.”

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.”

(1 Peter 2:9)

“For at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.”

(Ephesians 5:8-10)
Living Out the Kingdom of God—2

In the Word: Ephesians 4:25-32

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:34-35)

When Christian people live by kingdom principles, they exemplify Christ to the world. When they violate kingdom principles, Christ suffers, especially when it relates to our interpersonal relationships within the body of Christ. In His sermon of the final judgment Jesus made a profound statement, “Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me” (Matthew 25:40).

Thirty-five times in the New Testament we see a recurring word of an action verb followed by a word pattern of “one another.” We are told to prefer, accept, greet, encourage, forgive, be patient with, comfort, wait for, honor, and live in harmony with one another (See Romans 12:9-18). Even a casual survey of the New Testament reveals that God places a high priority on the way Christians treat one another. Why? The way we treat other believers is the way we are treating Christ. If we could grasp this truth, it would revolutionize the church, for the way I love you as a brother or sister in Christ is the way I love Christ. The way I treat you as a brother or sister in Christ is the way I am treating Christ (See Acts 9:4-5).

The early church understood this principle and the world said of them, “Behold, how they love one another.” While some might say

"And falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.” (Acts 9:4-5) that this is being idealistic, the Bible teaches that this love is a supernatural love that cannot be duplicated by any earthly love. It is a love that has been poured out into the heart of every believer (Romans 5:5) and transcends all other emotions or desires.

In 1 John 4:19-5:3 we read, “We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.”

Prayer: “Father, may I love others as You have loved me.”

―Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.”

(Romans 12:9-18)
In the Word: 1 Corinthians 4:14-21

For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power. (1 Corinthians 4:20)

In 1 Corinthians chapter 4, Paul is dealing with some troublemakers who were spreading malicious gossip and false teaching among the Christians in Corinth. In verse 20, Paul says that being a big talker is one thing, but living by God's power is quite another. Some people talk a lot about faith, but that is all it is—talk. They may know all the right words to say, but their lives do not reflect God's power. They can talk the talk, but they cannot walk the walk.

A careful reading of chapter 4 reveals that these arrogant backsliders talked a lot about their freedom and independence and rights. The same is true of many professing believers today who buy into the world’s philosophy and adapt to its ways.

While they were professing to be citizens of God's kingdom, to have surrendered their lives to Christ, their profession was in words only, it was a false profession. The power of God's kingdom, of His rule in a life, was not seen in their lives. They were not demonstrating love and peace nor the building up of God's family, instead they were doing the very opposite. They were gossiping, spreading rumors, making accusations, disturbing people, causing division, and were about to destroy the church. Therefore, Paul says that he will not flee the problem. Rather, he will deal with it. They no doubt thought they had good arguments for Paul in the event he showed up.

“And the Lord said to him, ‘Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also?’” (Luke 11:39-40)
Discovering the Kingdom of God Day 21

However, Paul would be checking their spiritual power, not their words, the inside not the outside (Luke 11:39-40). God’s people are to reflect God’s kingdom, His rule and glory, which does not consist in words, but in power. This is a central principle of great importance. Faith that does not result in right living may have many words to support it, but it will have no power. A person’s true spiritual character is not determined by the impressiveness of his words but by the power of his life (Matthew 7:21-23).

So, Paul is saying that the kingdom of God is not just fancy talk, it is to be lived. There is a big difference between knowing the right words and living them out. Here, the "kingdom" refers not to the future reign of Christ but to the present reign of God in believers' lives. A person can live only by God's power when he/she has the Holy Spirit within. The Holy Spirit dwells in every true believer (Romans 8:9).

Prayer: “Father, may my life always be lived under your rule.”

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'" (Matthew 7:21-23)

“You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him” (Romans 8:9).
Discovering the Kingdom of God      Day 22

Christians Personify the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Luke 6:37-42

A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (Luke 6:40)

The kingdom of God is to be Christlikeness personified. Christians are to reflect Christ in every aspect of life including lifestyle and relationships. In I Corinthians 10, Paul told his readers that his goal was to seek the good of others, not himself. With this in mind, Paul called upon believers to imitate him as he was imitating Christ (11:1).

The word "Christian" appears three times in the New Testament. Acts 11:26 records that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. This was not a name they adopted themselves, but one given to them by non-Christians and was intended as a negative term. It basically means a "little Christ," or one who patterns his life after that of Jesus Christ. It is synonymous with words such as disciple, saint, and believer. The term Christian marked out the disciples as being, above all the people, the followers, the servants of Christ.

By the time Paul preached to Agrippa in Acts 26:28, the term was in widespread use, at least among those familiar with "followers of the Way" (Acts 9:2). Agrippa, somewhat amused, asked Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me to be a Christian?" The witness of believers had been such that people everywhere knew about Christians, even if they did not know exactly what a Christian was.

Peter exhorts his readers in his first epistle that there is no shame in

"Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ." (1 Corinthians 11:1 NIV)

"And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked." (1 John 2:3-6) suffering as a Christian (1 Peter 4:16). He contrasted such suffering to punishment inflicted justly for a crime. Suffering for one's testimony was seen as a reason to praise God, in that the believer was being faithful (2 Timothy 3:12).

In our day the term "Christian" is used as both a noun and an adjective. A person may be said to be a Christian, that they profess to be a believer in Christ, drawing attention to the fact that they personify a follower of Christ in their attitude and actions. The Bible says, “[Whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he [Christ] walked” (1 John 2:6). The kingdom of God is to be Christlikeness personified.

Prayer: “Father, I want to live in such a way that others will see Jesus in me.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God    Day 23

My Kingdom or the Kingdom of God

In the Word: 2 Peter 1:3-15

For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (2 Peter 1:11)

Having been rescued from the domain of darkness and transferred into the kingdom of God’s beloved Son, Jesus Christ, the only One who provides redemption and the forgiveness of sins, believers live in the tension of the “already” and the “not yet” (Colossians 1:13-14). The teachings of Jesus instruct us that the Kingdom is both a present reality and a future climax. We have “already” tasted of the age to come (Hebrews 6:5) to a degree in the Holy Spirit (Romans 14:17). Yet, we wait for the consummation of the age and the beginning of eternity.

It is into this tension that Peter writes to Christians who were scattered throughout northern Asia Minor to offer to them hope and encouragement in the face of growing persecution and opposition to Christianity. As a distinct minority in a non-Christian world, Peter, in his first letter, urged believers to be holy “as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, ‘You shall be holy, for I am holy’” (1:15-16). This meant keeping their focus on Christ, obeying him, and living as citizens of God's "holy nation" (2:9). It would involve submitting to authorities (2:13), respecting others (2:17), doing good (3:9-13; 4:19), sharing the Good News (3:15), keeping a clear conscience (3:16), being disciplined (4:7; 5:8), and being humble (5:1-6).
Now, in his second letter, Peter urges the faithful followers of Christ, to continue to grow in their goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, kindness, and love (1:5-7). Real faith is demonstrated by faithful behavior. Peter knew that believers who are diligent in Christian growth won't backslide or be deceived by false teachers, who were also prevalent.

Today we also live in a non-Christian society, one that is filled with pressures and temptations that threaten to conform us to the world's values and lifestyles. Instead of giving in, we should be "holy," standing out from the crowd because of our love, humility, and discipline—all evidence of our strong commitment to Christ.

Prayer: “Father, may I ever be faithful to live out Your lifestyle in today’s world.”

Take Time To Be Holy

Take time to be holy, speak oft with thy Lord;
Abide in Him always, and feed on His Word.
Make friends of God’s children, help those who are weak,
Forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek.

Take time to be holy, the world rushes on;
Spend much time in secret, with Jesus alone.
By looking to Jesus, like Him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct His likeness shall see.

Take time to be holy, let Him be thy Guide;
And run not before Him, whatever betide.
In joy or in sorrow, still follow the Lord,
And, looking to Jesus, still trust in His Word.

Take time to be holy, be calm in thy soul,
Each thought and each motive beneath His control.
Thus led by His Spirit to fountains of love,
Thou soon shalt be fitted for service above.

Workers in the Kingdom of God—1

In the Word: Colossians 4:7-18

These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. (Colossians 4:11)

Writing from a prison cell, Paul closed Colossians by sending personal greetings from himself and others who were serving alongside him to individuals at Colosse. As energetic and well known as Paul was, he did not operate alone. Many men and women served the Lord by helping Paul in his ministry of spreading the gospel.

Three of Paul’s fellow workers were Jewish, Mark, Justus, and Aristarchus whom Paul called “fellow workers for the kingdom of God.” In this expression of gratitude for his co-workers, Paul gives additional insights into the kingdom of God.

The first insight reveals that it is His (Christ’s) Kingdom not my kingdom. In an age when individualism prevails within Christendom, the words of Paul bring us back to the reality that it is not about my kingdom, it is not about my desires, it is not about my church or denomination, but the thing that matters is His kingdom.

Here is Paul under house arrest, yet his mind was on the kingdom of God (Acts 28:30-31). He spoke of the kingdom of God to all who visited him and he wrote letters, commonly called his Prison Epistles, to the Ephesians, Colossians, and Philippians. He also wrote personal letters, such as the one to Philemon. Paul recognized that he was

In what ways are you a worker in the kingdom of God?

Is your church about His kingdom or someone else’s kingdom?

“He lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.” (Acts 28:30-31)

“This letter is from Paul, Jesus Christ's slave, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News.” Romans 1:1 (NLT)
under the authority of Christ (Romans 1:1) and engaged in doing those things that mattered most to Christ, the building up of His kingdom, not Paul’s kingdom. Earthly kingdoms perish, what was once a great church closes, denominations fade away, but the kingdom of God endures for all eternity.

In His closing instructions to the disciples Jesus told them to go and make disciples as they preached, baptized, and taught. They were to go under His authority and in the power of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8) to the ends of the earth, covering every inch of real estate and sharing the good news of the kingdom of God with everyone. No one was to be excluded, all persons, all people were to be included.

Prayer: “Father, may I be a worker in Your kingdom, sharing the good news of the gospel and teaching others Your kingdom truths.”

“And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.’”

(Matthew 28:18-20)
Workers in the Kingdom of God—2

In the Word: 1 Corinthians 3:1-15

These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. (Colossians 4:11)

Yesterday, we looked at the first insight Paul gave when he spoke of “my fellow workers for the kingdom of God.” In that simple statement he reminded every believer that it is God’s Kingdom not my kingdom that we are called to serve.

The second insight we glean from Paul’s words speak of cooperation. In acknowledging those who worked with him in the kingdom of God, Paul is also acknowledging that kingdom work is not accomplished single-handedly, for we are all to be co-laborers together with Christ. He illustrated this truth in 1 Corinthians 4:5-9, “What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.”

Working together we can accomplish more that we can working alone. Amish farmers know that two horses working together in harness can pull almost four times what one horse can pull alone, a lesson modern Christianity seems to have forgotten. Just think of what...
Discovering the Kingdom of God     Day 25

Christians could do if they, empowered by the Holy Spirit, cooperated together.

While each of us has various functions—Paul planted (originally brought the gospel message) and Apollos watered (continued in teaching)—each one was a team member with a common goal. Their goal was the same—to bring people into God's kingdom and to see them mature in their faith. Now, that’s a kingdom mindset.

Yet, that being said, each servant is still individually responsible for his or her work—they will be rewarded individually, according to their own hard work (1 Corinthians 3:10-15; 2 Corinthians 5:10). Paul and the other preachers and teachers of the true gospel message worked together as partners who belonged to God. Thus, their ministry belonged not to them, but to God.

Prayer: “Father, give me a cooperative heart in Your kingdom work.”

Let us rise, then, to His summons, dedicate to Him our all, that we may be faithful servants, quick to answer now His call.

We are called to be God’s prophets, speaking for the truth and right, standing firm for godly justice, bringing evil things to light. Let us seek the courage needed, our high calling to fulfill, that the world may know the blessing of the doing of God’s will.

(Thomas A. Jackson)
Workers in the Kingdom of God—3

In the Word: Romans 16:1-16

These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. (Colossians 4:11)

The third insight we discover is this, the way we treat those who labor in the kingdom of God is of great importance. Paul often closes his letters with words of appreciation to those who labor with him. For example, as he closes out his letter to the Christians in Rome, he acknowledges a long list of people who were his coworkers (Romans 16:1-16).

When we acknowledge those who labor with us in kingdom work, we are not only recognizing their contribution to kingdom work, but we are also expressing appreciation for their labor and unique spiritual giftedness. It's amazing what we can accomplish for God when no one worries about who gets the credit and we allow God to be in control.

Working with others in the kingdom of God was a difficult lesson for Paul to learn. At the start of his second missionary journey, Paul failed to recognize John Mark’s spiritual gifts and immaturity, instead he focused on his failures. This focus resulted in a schism between Barnabas and himself (Acts 15:36-41). While we do not read of the schism being mended between these two men, we do read of Paul’s later gratitude for Mark when he wrote to Timothy, “Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is very useful to me for ministry” (2 Timothy 4:11). Paul, the great missionary, apostle, and preacher had...

List the names of your fellow workers where you serve and give God thanks for each one of them.

“But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.”

(1 Corinthians 12:24b-26)
Discovering the Kingdom of God       Day 26

to learn the value of working together to accomplish kingdom work.

Suppose for a moment all the physical parts of a human body get into a quarrel. The hands, the mouth, the teeth, and the tongue are particularly disgruntled. They think, "Why should the stomach get all the gravy while we do all the work?" So, they decide to go on strike and show the stomach how important they are. For a short time everything goes well. Then, the stomach growled and acted up, but they refused to feed him. Soon, the hands nerves noticed that they were losing pep and strength. They could not work. They felt exhausted all the time. As the other parts discussed this development they realized that when all the parts of the body worked together they could accomplish great things for no one member of the body was living off the efforts of the others. All had to work together or all would suffer. It was all for one and one for all. That’s the way it is in the kingdom of God (Romans 12:3-8; 1 Corinthians 12).

Prayer: “Father, I thank you for the labor of others in Your kingdom.”

“For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.” (Romans 12:3-8)
Hindrances to the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Matthew 6:1—7:6

But seek (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides. (Matthew 6:33 AMP)

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus gave nine beatitudes that sound the way to victory and followed them with nine hindrances that strike the note of defeat. These hindrances are rooted in the inner division that comes from trying to walk on two sides of the road at the same time or from straddling the fence. They lead to backsliding, which in turn leads to backbiting and conflict within the kingdom of God.

1. You do your beautiful religious acts with divided motives – you give gifts to God, but you also give your gifts to impress others (Matthew 6:1-4).
2. You pray in two directions – to be heard by God and to be overheard by others (6:5-6).
3. You fast with a divided purpose – you do it before God and you do it in hope that others will give you credit for your self-denial (6:16-18).
4. You try to lay up treasures in two directions – on earth and in heaven (6:19-21).
5. You see in two directions – your outlook is divided (6:22-23).
6. You are trying to be loyal in two directions – trying to serve God while obsessed with money or possessions (6:24).

“If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.” (Mark 3:24-25)
Discovering the Kingdom of God       Day 27

7. You are anxious in two directions – toward what you will eat, drink, or wear and at the same time towards the kingdom of God (6:25-34).

8. You are criticizing in two directions – toward your brother with a rather heavy emphasis and towards yourself rather lightly (7:1-5).

9. You are giving yourself in two directions – giving yourself to God and also giving to that which is unholy (7:6).11

Living out the kingdom of God in today’s world calls for singleness of purpose and mind. When we surrender to Christ and His reign (His kingdom), that means alignment with Him. We are no longer to be divided, but in unison with His goals, His purposes, His will. Moreover, He gave us the Holy Spirit to enable us to live out the kingdom life with complete devotion to Him (John 14:26).

Prayer: “Father, may I live my life in total devotion to You.”

Jesus Calls Me

Jesus calls me, I must follow,
Follow Him today
When His tender voice is pleading
I must not, cannot delay?

Jesus calls me, I must follow,
Follow every hour
Know the blessing of His presence
Fullness of His power.

Jesus calls me; I must follow,
Follow Him alway
When my Savior goes before me,
I can never stray

Follow, I will follow Thee, my Lord,
Follow every passing day...
My tomorrows are all known to Thee,
Thou wilt lead me all the way.

Ethics and the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Matthew 7:24-28

"So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets." (Matthew 7:12)

Jesus, in His teachings on the kingdom of God taught that the way we treat other Christians is critical. To receive them is to receive or welcome Him and to reject them is to reject Him, and to reject Him is to reject the Father (Matthew 10:40; Luke 10:16; John 13:20). Jesus also taught that to offend one of His children was to offend Him as well (Matthew 18:6), a matter He takes seriously.

Without the guiding principles of the kingdom of God, Biblical ethics soon evolve to situation ethics where our actions are judged within their contexts instead of by Biblical principles. The dictionary defines ethics as the discipline dealing with the principles of conduct governing an individual or a group, it deals with what is good and bad and with moral duty and obligation.

A careful reading of the Sermon on the Mount and the teachings of Jesus reveal an expected standard of conduct among Christians that sets them apart from the world and the world’s system. When I speak wrongfully of fellow Christians, I speak wrongfully of Christ, when I bully other Christians to get my way, I am bullying Christ, when I offend other Christians, I am offending Christ. Jesus said, “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me." (Matthew 10:40)

"The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me." (Luke 10:16) loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:34-35; see 1 John 4:7-21; Mark 12:30-31).

A Christian leader recently spoke of how he had been involved in changing the direction of his denomination and moving it back to a more Biblical worldview. In the process many leaders were hurt and some destroyed. As he reflected on the process he said, “In returning our denomination back to the Bible I’m not sure we practiced what we preached from the Bible.” Then he said, “I’m fearful we practiced situation ethics not Biblical ethics, believing that the end justified the means.” “I’m afraid,” he concluded, “we have lost God’s blessing. We have sinned.”

Jesus said that to follow any way other than His way was to build upon the sand, and while for the moment it may stand, when the storms appear, that which is built on humanistic values and principles will collapse.

Prayer: “Father, enable me to love others as You have loved me.”

"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (John 13:20)

"But if you give them a hard time, bullying or taking advantage of their simple trust, you'll soon wish you hadn't. You'd be better off dropped in the middle of the lake with a millstone around your neck." (Matthew 18:6 The Message)

"Jesus said, 'And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these.'" (Mark 12:30-31)
The Church and the Kingdom of God

In the Word: Matthew 16:13-20

To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours.

(1 Corinthians 1:2)

What is the relationship of the kingdom of God to the church? Are the kingdom and the church the same?

The Bible teaches that the kingdom is visible only by faith, while the church is the channel of that faith and gives visible definition to the kingdom. The church is the community of the kingdom, but is never the kingdom itself. Christians belong to the kingdom as the kingdom belongs to them, but they are not the kingdom. The kingdom of God is the rule of God and the sphere in which that rule is experienced. It is the totality of persons, who at any given time are submitted to and governed by the Lordship of Jesus Christ, the King. Whereas the church is a society of people.

The kingdom and the church are similar, yet different. When you are born again you enter the realm of God’s rule and at that moment you become a part of Christ’s church. It is the kingdom that creates the church not the church that creates the kingdom. While the reign of Christ is invisible and takes place in the hearts of believers, it is to be embodied and made visible in the church (2 Corinthians 3:2). The church is the community of the kingdom, but it is never the kingdom itself. The church is the people of God’s rule who enter it, live under... it, and are governed by it. While entrance into the kingdom means participation in the church, entrance into the church is not necessarily synonymous with the entrance into the kingdom. One can be part of a local church and still not be part of the kingdom of God.

While the Bible never instructs us to preach the church, we are told to proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God (Acts 8:12). When the kingdom is preached, the church is built! If we make the mistake and proclaim the church rather than the kingdom of God, then the church becomes self-serving. It is entrance into the kingdom, not entrance into the church that changes people. It is the kingdom that brings new life to repentant people and creates the church. The church is the fellowship of those who have experienced God’s forgiveness and enjoy His reign.

Consequently, there can be no church without the kingdom and there can be no proclamation of that kingdom without the church. The kingdom and the church remain two distinguishable concepts: the rule of God and the fellowship of men.

Prayer: “Father, Today may Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.”
The Unshakable Kingdom of God

In the Word: Ephesians 1:15-23

I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. (Ephesians 1:17 NIV)

There is no better plan than the kingdom of God that was inaugurated, illustrated, and given meaning in Jesus Christ. With all the progress we have made in science, technology, and knowledge in general, we have yet to come up with anything that even comes close to equating with the kingdom of God. Governments and religious systems have offered rivalry kingdoms from the social gospel to a works based salvation, from communism to socialism, and they have all failed, for God’s kingdom has no equal.

Yet, God’s kingdom is not imposed on humanity as a code, for mankind is to develop in freedom as a moral being if he is to accept it as his own. Thus, this kingdom must be hidden in the nature of things and await humanity’s discovery and acceptance. The kingdom is revealed in two ways—“wisdom and revelation.” Wisdom is humanity’s search from below; revelation is God’s unfolding from above. It cannot be our wisdom from below alone nor God’s revelation from above, alone. It must be a joint unfolding of God’s revelation and humanity’s discovery.

It is in Jesus Christ that God fully reveals Himself. In Christ we discover that what God has unfolded in nature He is unfolding in Christ. The God of nature and the God of grace are the same God.
The laws of our being and the laws of the kingdom of God are the same and this is fully illustrated in the person of Jesus Christ who made himself and the kingdom one (John 1:1, 14).

Can you imagine any better order than one in which the spirit of Christ pervades, guides, and illustrates? It is as we discover and obey the laws of the kingdom of God that we find true freedom. This kingdom is an unshakable kingdom built from the foundations of the world so that it includes our human nature (Romans 1:18-32). God has structured us to be His, and when we find Him and His kingdom we find our homeland, our natural way to live, so that we are supernaturally living in an unshakable kingdom that will prevail. 12

Prayer: “Father, give me wisdom to better understand your kingdom that I might truly know the true freedom that comes through Christ.”

“For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.” (Romans 1:19-23)
The Kingdom of God is Already Here

In the Word: Luke 10:1-12

And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' (Matthew 10:7)

The kingdom of God is both a present reality and a future hope. It is here and is to be proclaimed and lived out (Acts 20:25) and yet Christians are to live in anticipation of the day when the kingdom comes (Matthew 6:10). Jesus preached it as a present reality and sent the disciples out to do the same (Matthew 9:35). Today, we too must go out and begin to think and act as though the kingdom were already here.

If I am to think and act as though the kingdom were already here, then I am to prayerfully consider how I can apply the kingdom spirit and principles to all my relationships as far as it depends on me in my personal thought, life, actions, and habits; to my family life, to my professional or business relationships, to my ethnic and cultural relationships, to my recreational relationships, and to my church relationships.

I cannot change everybody but I can change myself and my relationships as far as they depend on me. In each of these I can say, “As far as I am concerned the kingdom is already here. In the light of it being already here, how do I think and act? I am certain of one thing about that kingdom, and the kingdom is the kingdom of love for everybody, everywhere, for I am a disciple to the kingdom of God, under its guidance, control and unfolding sovereignty (See 1 John 4; John 13:34-35).

I have a destiny, I am a seed of the new order. Jesus said, “the good seed is the children of the kingdom” (Matthew 13:38). I am sown in this particular place to be the interpretation, meaning, and message of the new order. I know the seed and the soil affinities, so that all the resources of the kingdom are at my disposal. Accordingly, I can do all things through him who strengthens me (Philippians 4:13). I am in the kingdom, I have a total Gospel, for man’s total need, for the total world. I ought to be happy—I am! So I pray, “Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.”

Prayer: “Father, may I live out Your kingdom in this world while eagerly awaiting the coming of Your kingdom.”

“And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction.”

(Matthew 9:35)

“I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me [I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ’s sufficiency].”

(Philippians 4:13 AMP)

Discovering the Kingdom of God

My journey to understand and discover the Kingdom of God began with taking all the references to the kingdom of God (heaven) in the New Testament and putting them into a format similar to what you find below. Then I started reading each reference, in its context, noting key words and thoughts. Let me challenge you to begin the process of discovering God’s kingdom in today’s world.

Line one is a brief description of the context (in italics)
Line two is the scripture reference and verse.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way
Matthew 3:2 - "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Jesus Begins His Ministry
Matthew 4:17 - From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Jesus Ministers to Great Crowds
Matthew 4:23 - And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people.

The Beatitudes
Matthew 5:3 - "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
Matthew 5:10 – “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Christ Came to Fulfill the Law
Matthew 5:19-20 - “Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

The Lord's Prayer
Matthew 6:10 - “Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”
Matthew 6:13 - “And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

Do Not Be Anxious
Matthew 6:33 - “But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God

I Never Knew You
Matthew 7:21 - “Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.”

The Faith of a Centurion
Matthew 8:11-12 - “I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

The Harvest Is Plentiful, the Laborers Few
Matthew 9:35 - And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction.

Jesus Sends Out the Apostles
Matthew 10:7 - And proclaim as you go, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Messengers from John the Baptist
Matthew 11:11-12 - “Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force.”

Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit
Matthew 12:25 -26 - Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?”
Matthew 12:28 - “But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.”

The Purpose of the Parables
Matthew 13:11 - And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.”

The Parable of the Sower Explained
Matthew 13:19- “When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path.”

The Parable of the Weeds
Matthew 13:24 - He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Mustard Seed and the Leaven
Matthew 13:31 - He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field."
Matthew 13:33 - He told them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

The Parable of the Weeds Explained
Matthew 13:38 - “The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one.”
Matthew 13:41 - “The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers.”
Matthew 13:43 - “Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.”

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure
Matthew 13:44 - "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Value
Matthew 13:45 - "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls.”

The Parable of the Net
Matthew 13:47 - "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind.”

New and Old Treasures
Matthew 13:52 - And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

Peter Confesses Jesus As the Christ
Matthew 16:19 - “I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus
Matthew 16:28 - “Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Who Is the Greatest?
Matthew 18:1 - At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"
Matthew 18:3-4 - And said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant
Matthew 18:23 - “Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants.”

Teaching About Divorce
Matthew 19:12 - “For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it.”

Let the Children Come to Me
Matthew 19:14 - But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven."

The Rich Young Man
Matthew 19:23-24 - And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

Laborers in the Vineyard
Matthew 20:1 - "For the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard."

A Mother's Request
Matthew 20:21 - And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Say that these two sons of mine are to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom."

The Parable of the Two Sons
Matthew 21:31 - “Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you."

The Parable of the Tenants
Matthew 21:43 - “Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits.”

The Parable of the Wedding Feast
Matthew 22:2 - "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son."

Seven Woes to the Scribes and Pharisees
Matthew 23:13 - "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. For you neither enter yourselves nor allow those who would enter to go in.”

Signs of the Close of the Age
Matthew 24:7 - “For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.”
Matthew 24:14 - “And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.”

The Parable of the Ten Virgins
Matthew 25:1 - "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.”

The Final Judgment
Matthew 25:34 - “Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'”

Institution of the Lord's Supper
Matthew 26:29 - “I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

Jesus Begins His Ministry
Mark 1:15 - And saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."

Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit
Mark 3:24 - “If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.”

The Purpose of the Parables
Mark 4:11 - And he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside everything is in parables.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed
Mark 4:26 - And he said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed
Mark 4:30 - And he said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it?”

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection
Mark 9:1 - And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power."
Discovering the Kingdom of God

Temptations to Sin
Mark 9:47 - “And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell.”

Let the Children Come to Me
Mark 10:14-15 - But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

The Rich Young Man
Mark 10:23-25 - And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

The Triumphal Entry
Mark 11:10 - “Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!"

The Great Commandment
Mark 12:34 - And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Institution of the Lord's Supper
Mark 14:25 - “Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Jesus Is Buried
Mark 15:43 - Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the Council, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God, took courage and went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Birth of Jesus Foretold
Luke 1:33 - “And he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

Jesus Preaches in Synagogues
Luke 4:43 - But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well; for I was sent for this purpose."

The Beatitudes
Luke 6:20 - And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.”
Messengers from John the Baptist
Luke 7:28 - “I tell you, among those born of women none is greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

Women Accompanying Jesus
Luke 8:1 - Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him.

The Purpose of the Parables
Luke 8:10 - He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but for others they are in parables, so that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand."

Jesus Sends Out the Apostles
Luke 9:2 - And he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand
Luke 9:11 - When the crowds learned it, they followed him, and he welcomed them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God and cured those who had need of healing.

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus
Luke 9:27 - “But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

The Cost of Following Jesus
Luke 9:60 - And Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."
Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-Two
Luke 10:9 - “Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'”
Luke 10:11 - “Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.”

The Lord's Prayer
Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come.”

Jesus and Beelzebul
Luke 11:17-18 - But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God

Luke 11:20 - “But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.”

Do Not Be Anxious
Luke 12:31-32 - “Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.”

The Mustard Seed and the Leaven
Luke 13:18 - He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?"
Luke 13:20 - And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?"

The Narrow Door
Luke 13:28-29 - “In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God.”

The Parable of the Great Banquet
Luke 14:15 - When one of those who reclined at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

The Law and the Kingdom of God
Luke 16:16 - "The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it.”

The Coming of the Kingdom
Luke 17:20-21 - Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed, nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you."

Let the Children Come to Me
Luke 18:16-17 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

The Rich Ruler
Luke 18:24-25 - Jesus, looking at him with sadness, said, "How difficult it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."
Luke 18:29 - And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God.”
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Parable of the Ten Minas
Luke 19:11-12 - As they heard these things, he proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately. He said therefore, "A nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. When he returned, having received the kingdom, he ordered these servants to whom he had given the money to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by doing business."

The Lesson of the Fig Tree
Luke 21:31 - “So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near.”

Institution of the Lord's Supper
Luke 22:16 - “For I tell you I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”
Luke 22:18 - “For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

Who Is the Greatest?
Luke 22:29-30 - “And I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom, that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

The Crucifixion
Luke 23:42 - And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Jesus Is Buried
Luke 23:51 - Who had not consented to their decision and action; and he was looking for the kingdom of God.

You Must Be Born Again
John 3:3 - Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."
John 3:5 - Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God."

My Kingdom Is Not of This World
John 18:36 - Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world."

The Promise of the Holy Spirit
Acts 1:3 - To them he presented himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Ascension
Acts 1:6 - So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the \textit{kingdom} to Israel?"

Simon the Magician Believes
Acts 8:12 - But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the \textit{kingdom} of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

Paul Stoned at Lystra
Acts 14:22 - Strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the \textit{kingdom} of God.

Paul in Ephesus
Acts 19:8 - And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the \textit{kingdom} of God.

Paul Speaks to the Ephesian Elders
Acts 20:25 - And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the \textit{kingdom} will see my face again.”

Paul in Rome
Acts 28:23 - When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in greater numbers. From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the \textit{kingdom} of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.
Acts 28:31 - Proclaiming the \textit{kingdom} of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

Do Not Cause Another to Stumble
Romans 14:17 - For the \textit{kingdom} of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

The Ministry of Apostles
1 Corinthians 4:20 - For the \textit{kingdom} of God does not consist in talk but in power.

Who Inherits the Kingdom
1 Corinthians 6:9-10 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the \textit{kingdom} of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the \textit{kingdom} of God.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Resurrection of the Dead
1 Corinthians 15:24 - Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

Mystery and Victory
1 Corinthians 15:50 - I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Walk by the Spirit
Galatians 5:21 - Envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Walk in Love
Ephesians 5:5 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

Thanksgiving and Prayer
Colossians 1:13 - He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son.

Final Greetings
Colossians 4:11 - And Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

Paul's Ministry to the Thessalonians
1 Thessalonians 2:12 - We exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

The Judgment at Christ's Coming
2 Thessalonians 1:5 - This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering.

Preach the Word
2 Timothy 4:1 - I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom.

Personal Instructions
2 Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.
Discovering the Kingdom of God

The Supremacy of God's Son
Hebrews 1:8 - But of the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom."

A Kingdom That Cannot Be Shaken
Hebrews 12:28 - Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe.

The Sin of Partiality
James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him?

Make Your Calling and Election Sure
2 Peter 1:11 - For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Greeting to the Seven Churches
Revelation 1:6 - And made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Vision of the Son of Man
Revelation 1:9 - I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation and the kingdom and the patient endurance that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos on account of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

The Scroll and the Lamb
Revelation 5:10 - "And you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth."

The Seventh Trumpet
Revelation 11:15 - Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever."

Satan Thrown Down to Earth
Revelation 12:10 - And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God."

Prophetic Prayer and the Kingdom of God with Kynan Bridges Part 2. by Discovering The Truth w/ Dan D. 1:26:49. We have to reestablish the Kingdom of God here on earth as it is in Heaven. And so, at the heart of this new series of messages, is what I believe to be a mistake of the church. In our effort to embrace God’s Kingdom plan and work to establish His Kingdom here, we have gone about it the wrong way. Unfortunately, many believers in Christ have bought into the fallacy that religious practices will make this world right. I believe the problem is that men have replaced God’s original plan of creating His Kingdom on earth with the plan of developing numerous religious practices and basic moralistic
