A great book about the story of karate and a few basic techniques. What I found lacking is the insertion maybe of at least two two katas and the discussion of at least the bunkai of one kata. For anyone not in karate it is a good introduction to karate. The one statement is very good - when one enters a dojo you bow before signifying one accept the teaching at this dojo/instructor - I like that. Overall still worth the read because just maybe something else or another statement might be signific A great book about the story of karate and a few basic techniques. What I found lacking is the inse
