Timeline: Canada in the First World War. August 4 1914. First World War Begins. For a nation of eight million people Canada's war effort was remarkable. More than 650,000 men and women from Canada and Newfoundland served – over 66,000 gave their lives and more than 172,000 were wounded. It was this immense sacrifice that lead to Canada's separate signature on the Peace Treaty. No longer viewed as just a colony of England, Canada had truly achieved nation status. This nationhood was purchased by the gallant men who stood fast at Ypres, stormed Regina Trench, climbed the heights of Vimy Ridge, captured Passchendaele, and entered Mons on November 11, 1918. The Great War: 1914-1918 (aka History Line: 1914-1918, Historyline: 1914-1918) is a video game published in 1993 on DOS by Strategic Simulations, Inc.. It's a strategy game, set in a historical battle (specific/exact), turn-based, world war i and war themes, and was also released on Amiga. History Line (released as The Great War: 1914 - 1918 in the US by SSI) is a World War 1 tactical wargame based on an improved and modified engine used in Blue Byte's earlier Battle Isle games. It is one of the few tactical World War 1 wargames to be made for the PC, and is a fun and enjoyable game, although shortcomings and awkward controls will take a while to get used to.
