Dictionary of Literary Terms This is a book of hard words alphabetically arranged and briefly explained. It cannot purport to fulfil the functions of a dictionary. The selection is weighted towards literature and criticism in English, but there are many terms taken from other languages, and many more associated primarily with other literatures. Many of the terms that I have omitted from this dictionary are covered by larger or more specialist works; a brief guide to these appears on page 279. In each entry I have attempted to explain succinctly how the term is or has been used, with a brief illustrative example wherever possible, and to clarify any relevant distinctions of sense. Each language has such literary terms and devices that makes it a mode of expression of creativity and imagination along with one's thoughts. Besides the rules of English grammar there are numerous other devices that make expression so effortless. This article is a glossary of literary terms and definitions in English language. This glossary is not only of help to students of a particular language, but will also enable common man to appreciate the beauty of this language. Literary Terms Glossary.
